The renter, by accepting merchandise, consents and agrees to all of the following terms and conditions. The title and right of possession to all materials remain with the seller until the seller has received the full rental price thereof. If seller institutes legal action against the buyer to enforce the contract or any part thereof buyer agrees to pay such sum on invoice. Unless prior arrangements are made in writing for extended credit, a service charge of 1.5% of the past due balance will be made each month. Credit will not be issued on goods returned unless returned with our written authorization. Deliveries are made subject to War, Strikes, Acts of God, or any other cause beyond our control.
